

presented by

Brazos Valley Worldfest Education Competition

Sharing Our Culture

Office of International Outreach
Texas A&M University

The Brazos Valley Worldfest Education Competition challenges students and adults in the Brazos Valley to share their culture through digital stories and posters.

Below are a few topic suggestions.

Sharing Our Culture Through Digital Stories

- Tell a story about your family customs and traditions
- Interview a foreign student or visitor and tell about another culture
- Relate a story about Brazos Valley history and culture
- Share a folk tale from another culture
- Design a book trailer reviewing a book about another culture
- Write a poem or song that tells about culture

Sharing Our Culture Through Posters

- Illustrate your family customs and traditions
- Show celebrations from other cultures
- Share a folk tale from another culture
- Present local heroes or heroes from other lands
- Design a book trailer reviewing a book about another culture
- Depict Brazos valley history or cultural traditions

A mini training workshop on digital storytelling is available on request.

Competition Categories

Pre-K—2nd Grade • 3rd—5th grade • 6th—8th grade • 9th—12th grade • Adults (18 & over)

The Awards Ceremony for the Sharing Our Culture Education Competition will be held at 10:00 am on Saturday, November 17, 2007 at the opening ceremonies for Brazos Valley Worldfest in downtown Bryan.

A first and second prize will be awarded in each category.

All videos and posters that comply with the elements of the project rubrics will be shown at Brazos Valley Worldfest and the participant will receive a Brazos Valley Worldfest certificate.

For additional information contact:

Ms. Martha Green, Education Coordinator
International Outreach
TAMU International Center, 1245 TAMU
College Station TX 77843-1245

Phone—979.862.6700
Fax—979.862.6705
education@brazosvalleyworldfest.org www.brazosvalleyworldfest.org