

Zooming Out for a Global View 2009

Student Global Issues Conference Agenda

- 8:00 to 9:00 Registration, project set-up, and Continental breakfast provided by the Office of International Outreach
- 9:00 to 10:00 Key Note Address by Dr. John W. Poston followed by a Q&A session “Radiation, Radioactivity and Other Things Nuclear”
Students, teachers, parents invited
- Students only: Annenberg Presidential Conference Center
- 10:00 to 11:00 “Zoom In” Small Group Discussions moderated by Texas A&M Academy of Future International Leaders students. Groups will discuss international issues in a controlled but open forum
- 11:00 to 11:30 “Zoom In” Group Challenge: Discussion groups will identify an international challenge and determine approaches for dealing with the issue.
- 11:30 to 12:00 Lunch provided by the Office of International Outreach. Lunchtime will provide an opportunity for students to visit informally with Texas A&M students
- Teachers only: George Bush Presidential Library : Museum classroom
(next to Annenberg Conference Center)
- 10:00 to 12:00 Teaching with Primary Sources Workshop and lunch
- 12:00 to 12:45 Poster session for students to display and explain their projects
Students, teachers, parents invited
- 12:45 to 2:00 Awards ceremony and featured student presentations.
Students, teachers, parents invited
- 2:00 to 3:00 Tour of the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum.
See Beyond the Moon: NASA's Continuing Mission
Students, teachers, parents invited
- 5:00 pm Departure from the George Bush Presidential Library. Groups may