This workshop offers Texas educators of grades 6-12 resources for understanding and teaching about the Arab world and Islam. Participants will be introduced to a wide range of educationally pertinent topics in this one-day workshop. Topics to be discussed include: art, architecture, education, family, geography, the Gulf War, Islam, literature, music, oil, politics and religion. Designed specifically for teachers, this workshop includes resources for the topics presented, such as, the Arab World Studies Notebook. All social studies teachers of grades 6-12 as well as other teachers working in these topical areas at the secondary level are strongly encouraged to attend.

Ms. Audrey Shabbas, Middle East Policy Council's primary workshop leader, will lead the workshop. With over twenty-two years experience in teaching and curriculum development on the Middle East and Islam, she is the preeminent presenter in this area. Among her many professional affiliations are the National Council for the Social Studies, National Association for Multicultural Education, and the Middle East Studies Association of North America.

A $15 fee is required to hold your space in the workshop. This fee will cover the 540-page Arab World Studies Notebook edited by Audrey Shabbas. Please make your check payable to TAMU International Center.
